2. Vision, Purpose & Values

Vision — Scaling New Heights

Our goal is to multiply revenues 4x by 2030, reaching INR 500 Crore with a 10% PAT. By then, we aim to shift our sales mix significantly toward branded products:

- 30% of revenues from branded products
- 50% from branded B2B channels
- 20% from branded B2C channels

Purpose — Why We Exist

To provide convenient, delicious dairy and allied products that make customers go WOW!

Our Core Values

Value	What It Means
Committed	Delivering on every promise — to our clients, consumers, and communities
Original	Authentic, clean-label products with no shortcuts on quality or flavour

Caring	People-first approach — for our employees, farmers, and end consumers
Ethical	Transparent processes, honest sourcing, and responsible business practices

3. Manufacturing: Setting the Standard

At Amrit Foods, we take pride in having one of the most advanced dairy processing plants in India.

UHT & Aseptic Packaging

Our Ultra Heat Treatment plant is from APV Denmark using direct steam infusion technology for zero-bacteria products with unmatched quality and flavour. The Aseptic Packaging line is from Prepac, France, ensuring sterile packaging at minimal cost.

Retort (Bottling)

Our bottling section uses an automatic filling line and a hot water spray sterilizer, ensuring long shelf life, great taste, and 100% bacteria-free products.

Our USP: Long shelf life, ready-to-use milk and milk products that are 100% safe to consume directly from the pack.

4. Quality Control: Tried and Tested

Quality is a way of life at Amrit. Our in-house laboratory is fully equipped and staffed by highly qualified microbiologists, chemists, and dairy technologists. We consistently monitor:

- Tests on all incoming raw materials
- In-process and finished product testing
- Microbiological analysis of raw and finished products

5. B2B Product Range — Cool M

Cool M products are built for speed, consistency, and reliable taste — designed for high-volume operations and modern QSR and café menus. With minimal prep and dependable performance, we help teams deliver the same great serve across all outlets, every time.
